Application has been made to the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange for the granting of the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Shares to be issued as described in the Prospectus and/or to be offered in the Global Offering. Dealings in the Shares on the Stock Exchange are expected to commence at 9:30 a.m. on 12 December 2007. Subject to the granting of the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Shares on the Stock Exchange as well as compliance with the stock admission requirements of HKSCC, the Shares will be accepted as eligible securities by HKSCC for deposit, clearance and settlement in CCASS with effect from the commencement date of dealings in the Shares on the Stock Exchange or such other date as determined by HKSCC. All activities under CCASS are subject to the General Rules of CCASS and CCASS Operational Procedures in effect from time to time.

The Global Offering comprises the Hong Kong Public Offering of initially 10,000,000 Shares and the International Placing of initially 90,000,000 Shares. The Company is initially offering 10,000,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares, representing 10% of the total number of Shares initially being offered in the Global Offering, for subscription by way of a public offer in Hong Kong. The Hong Kong Offer Shares are being offered at the Offer Price. The allocation of the Shares between the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Placing is subject to adjustment as stated in the paragraph headed “The Hong Kong Public Offering” under the section headed “Structure of the Global Offering” in the Prospectus.

The Offer Price is expected to be fixed by agreement between the Global Coordinator (on behalf of the Underwriters), and the Company on or before 5 December 2007. The Offer Price will be not more than HK$7.45 per Share and is expected to be not less than HK$5.75 per Share. Applicants for Hong Kong Offer Shares are required to pay 1% brokerage, 0.004% SFC transaction levy, and 0.005% Stock Exchange trading fee. The Global Coordinator (on behalf of the Underwriters and with the consent of the Company) may reduce the indicative offer price range stated above and in the Prospectus at any time prior to the morning of the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. In such a case, a notice of the reduction in the indicative offer price range will be published in the South China Morning Post (in English) and the Hong Kong Economic Times (in Chinese) not later than the morning of the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. Applicants should note that if applications for Hong Kong Offer Shares have been submitted, then even if the indicative offer price range is so reduced, such applications cannot be subsequently withdrawn. If, for any reason, the Global Coordinator (on behalf of the Underwriters) and the Company are unable to reach an agreement on the Offer Price on or before 12:00 noon, 5 December 2007, the Global Offering will not become unconditional and will lapse.

The Global Offering is conditional on the fulfillment of the conditions as stated in the paragraph headed “Conditions” in the section headed “Structure of the Global Offering” in the Prospectus. If the Global Offering does not become unconditional, all application monies received from applicants under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be refunded, and in the event that the Offer Price is less than the initial price per Share actually paid, the appropriate portion of the application monies will be refunded, in each case without interest and on the terms set out under the paragraph headed “Refund of your money” on the relevant Application Forms or in the section headed “Terms and conditions of the Hong Kong Public Offering” in the Prospectus. Refund payments will also be made in respect of wholly or partially unsuccessful applications. Refund monies for applicants applying by giving electronic application instructions to HKSCC is expected to be credited to Applicants being individuals who opt for personal collection cannot authorise any other person to make collection on their behalf. Applicants being corporations which opt for personal collection must attend by their authorised representatives bearing letters of authorisation from their respective corporations stamped with the respective corporations' chops. Both individuals and authorised representatives (if applicable) must produce, at the time of collection, evidence of identity acceptable to Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited. Uncollected Share certificates and refund cheques (where applicable) will be despatched by ordinary post at the applicants' own risk to the addresses specified in the relevant Application Forms.

In connection with the Global Offering, BNP Paribas Capital, as Global Coordinator and stabilising manager, or any person acting for it, may over-allocate or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Shares at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail for a limited period. Any stabilising activity will be effected in compliance with all applicable laws and regulatory requirements, including the Securities and Futures (Price stabilising) Rules made under the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong). However, there is no obligation on BNP Paribas Capital or any person acting for it to conduct any such stabilising activity, which if taken, will be done at the absolute discretion of BNP Paribas Capital and may be discontinued at any time. Any primary stabilising activity is required to be brought to an end within 30 days of the last day for the lodging of applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering.

The number of Shares being offered in the International Placing may be increased by up to an aggregate of 15,000,000 additional Shares through the exercise of the Over-allotment Option expected to be granted to the Global Coordinator, by the Company subject to and upon the execution of the International Underwriting Agreement and is exercisable by the Global Coordinator (on behalf of the International Underwriters) to cover over-allocations in the International Placing up to 30 days from the last day for the lodging of applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. In the event that the Over-allotment Option is exercised, a press announcement will be made.

In relation to applicants on Application Forms for 1,000,000 Shares or more who did not opt for personal collection and applicants for less than 1,000,000 Shares, their Share certificates (where applicable) and/or refund cheques (where applicable) will be despatched by ordinary post at the applicants' own risk to the addresses specified in the relevant Application Forms on 11 December 2007.

Share certificates will only become valid certificates of title if the Global Offering has become unconditional and neither of the Underwriting Agreements has been terminated in accordance with its terms, which is expected to occur no later than 8:00 a.m. on 12 December 2007.

Applications for the Shares will only be considered on the basis set out in the Prospectus and the WHITE and YELLOW Application Forms. Subject to the terms and conditions set out in the Prospectus and the Application Forms relating thereto, applications made on WHITE or YELLOW Application Forms or by giving electronic application instructions to HKSCC must be received no later than 12:00 noon on 4 December 2007 (or if the application lists are not open on that day, then by 12:00 noon on the next Business Day on which the lists are open). The Shares available for subscription by the public under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be divided equally into two pools for allocation purposes: pool A and pool B. The Shares in pool B will be allocated on an equitable basis to applicants who have applied for Shares with an aggregate subscription price of more than HK$5 million (excluding the brokerage, the SFC transaction levy and the Stock Exchange trading fee payable). Investors should be aware that applications in pool A and applications in pool B may receive different allocation ratios. If the Shares in one (but not both) of the pools are undersubscribed, the surplus Shares will be transferred to the other pool to satisfy demand in the pool and be allocated accordingly. For the purpose of this paragraph only, the “subscription price” for the Shares means the price payable on application therefor (without regard to the Offer Price as finally determined). Applicants can only receive an allocation of Shares from either pool A or pool B but not from both pools.

The Company expects to publish the announcement on the level of applications in the Hong Kong Public Offering, the level of indications of interest in the International Placing, the basis of allotment of the Hong Kong Offer Shares and the Offer Price in the South China Morning Post (in English) and the Hong Kong Economic Times (in Chinese) on Tuesday, 11 December 2007.
